

TLS4

Proven Wet Stock Management. Problem Solved.

Proven Precision

The tls4 automatic tank gauge is the premier wet stock management solution that combines precision performance with scalability, sophistication, customization and ease of use.

The tls4 accurately delivers crucial information on-site or remotely when you need it – during busy dispensing periods, when scheduling deliveries, when reconciling fuel variances.

Proven Protection

Veeder-Root's tls4 is a powerful tool. It provides awareness that your sites are running smoothly and you are protected.

The tls4 protects your fuel assets whether you are on-site or with your family. You will have peace-of-mind knowing you have timely theft protection, compliance protection, and variance protection available at your fingertips.

Proven Profit

Better wet stock control via your tls4 helps eliminate run-out risk and delivery disputes, minimizes business disruptions, and ultimately leads to maximum profitability.

As the premier automatic inventory management solution, the tls4 elevates employee productivity and station efficiency – replacing harmful and time-intensive manual tank dipping.
