Why Gilbarco Veeder-Root?

Gilbarco Veeder-Root is a trusted global brand with a history of innovation. We partner success by providing a wealth of insights, expertise and solutions to meet the business challenges facing the forecourt retail industry. Fuel retailers rely on our world-renowned quality, security and flexibility to protect the most important part of their business — their revenue.

Assured Quality

FlexPay™ terminals are the result of over 30 years of experience in outdoor payment terminals and payment platforms spanning wide-reaching global regions.

Security

SPOT (Secure Platform for Outdoor Terminals) is a key feature in FlexPay™ terminals, ensuring dependable security and compliance to PCI and EMV standards.

User Experience

The SPOT patented technical solution provides graphical screens for simple user guidance and the ability to display multimedia during most refuelling steps.

Flexibility

Gilbarco Veeder-Root offers a broad range of terminals, including the first double sided outdoor B2B terminal and the slim NP3 terminal.

Field Proven

Rugged, robust and reliable components are tested and proven to suit weather conditions ranging from the hot, coastal regions of Cyprus and Sicily to the harsh colds of Norway and Russia.

Tailored to your Forecourt

Our payment solutions are deployed easily with minimal space requirements and multiple options for upgrading from previous terminal generations.

Future Proof

Retrofit up to date technologies and security standards.
Add banknote acceptance, double sided panels to a mono side B2B, contactless payments and more with future proof expandability.

Why install payment to your site?

More and more retailers are utilising payment on the forecourt as a powerful tool to increase revenue and profit. Advanced forecourt automation and payment technology allows business to improve profit margins through improved customer loyalty and service levels greater revenue generation and a reduction in operational costs.

Increase Revenue
